

Built for Comfort

Looking for a house that is so easy to live in, where everyone's needs are covered and walking distance to the beach? You know, one with four good sized bedrooms, a handy study just off one of the two living areas, great kitchen with a load of storage, double garage plus a big shed in the North Facing backyard. Sounding good so far?.. read on.

This is a large two story, multi level home on 1000m2 with a level entry driveway to the double garage with internal access and extra side parking with drainage for cleaning down the boat after a hard day of fishing! Step inside the brick veneer and tile roof home to a large living room adjoining the dining area and modern kitchen with breakfast bar, storage galore and stainless steel appliances. Stepping down from the dining area is a bathroom, laundry and big second living space with direct access to the backyard.

Heading upstairs, the bedrooms all have BIR while the extra large main with private balcony includes walk in robe and ensuite. The main bathroom with separate shower and WC servicing the same level for the other bedrooms. The storage continues with a walk in linen cupboard. The gently slopping
