13 The Crest, Mirador

Aim For The Crest

The photos will look great, the floor plan will make sense to you and the walk through video will give you a good feel for the place but honestly, its even better in person! Immaculately presented 4 bedroom home on a 935m2 block in the beautiful Mirador Estate with an outstanding split level layout that gives everyone space and an opportunity to enjoy living in a home of clever design that most look for but rarely find.

Landscaping to the highest standard, the front yard and entry has stone work, paving, hardwood timbers and sleepers with feature lights to guide you to the large front door with covered entryway. Polished hardwood timber floors throughout from the foyer to the living spaces, three robed bedrooms are positioned in their own area central to a handy study nook and stunning main bathroom and laundry.

The next level living space includes a beautifully designed kitchen with ample storage, stainless appliances and breakfast bar adjoining the dining space thats positioned right next to the free standing wood fire place not only keeping you toasty in winter but looks amazing as well! The dining area flows onto the spacious living room on one side and a separate living / media room on the other. The extra large main bedroom looks out to the gardens, filtered ocean views, has a generous walk in robe and lovely ensuite.

The warmer months are getting closer and the alfresco area adjoining the dining and living is were your going to want to be! Extensively landscaped, a completely level backyard begins with a tiled entertaining area complete
