

Lot 122 Of Subdivision Of 35 Cocora Street, Eden

Location is key!

A superb block is available as part of a proposed subdivision and your going to want to take a look! Nearly level and 1016m² in size, this location is one of the most in demand areas of Eden. Fully serviced and tucked away at the end of a court that is a less than 500m walk to the main street, build your home to take full advantage of the location with water views available across the stunning Twofold Bay. Want to maximise your investment? This site is suitable for development for up to 4 units (STCA)! Also included are drafted plans for a beautifully designed home that maximises the position and views.

Beach close by, quiet location, coastal water views, main street within walking distance and easy access to an all but level block.
