Eden Fish and Chips

A wonderful business opportunity located in the fishing town of Eden NSW! Currently the only traditional Fish and Chip in town, this takeaway food business has optimal access to fresh seafood produce and never disappoints in serving up delicious traditional fish and chips. And it shows with recent weekend trade being similar to summer holiday trade. It's got the local vote.

The shop front offers excellent main street frontage with traffic constantly passing in transit to and from Eden's famous fishing port. There is great council provided fixed seating on the sidewalk and ample space for customers to enjoy their meal inside the premises.

Walk-in walk-out sale includes all equipment you will need for a smooth transition to continued constantly busy patronage and income. The sky is the limit - trusted and preferred by the locals looking for consistently great tasting traditional style fish and chips and offering repeat business to the many tourists this town attracts. For good old fish, chips and burgers everyone knows where to go.
