Eye On The Prize

Getting into your own home is the goal of many and finding the right one difficult! If position is important to you and a house that you can really be made into a home take a look at this solid 3 bedroom brick veneer and tile roof residence.

Positioned backing onto reserve and less than 600m to the beach with views across Twofold Bay on a 676.5m² block. A spacious living and dining area carries through to a modern kitchen with plenty of storage including a walk in pantry. A separate family room could be a 4th bedroom going out to a rear deck overlooking the reserve. A large lock-up garage is complemented by a huge under house workshop with separate bathroom that's fully concreted. Landscaped gardens, large BBQ patio, fully fenced yard with reserve access makes for a great family home.

This is your opportunity to grab a home that is ready to be lived in now, rented out for good returns or renovated.

Close to the beach in a beautiful location with water views!
