191 Mirador Dr, Mirador

How Sweet it Is!

Spacious, light and cleverly designed high end 4 bedroom home with many features including high ceilings and ocean views on a 879m2 block.

It is easy to imagine living in this single level home as soon as you enter the front door with the ocean glistening in the distance through the windows of the front living area, open living space right through to the alfresco and backyard. A large, quality kitchen is at the heart of the home with breakfast bar, walk in pantry, stone bench tops, servery window out to the covered alfresco and storage aplenty. Throughout this stunning home is polished concrete flooring including the study nook, dining and living area that adjoins the outdoor entertaining area.

There are 4 good sized bedrooms with built in's including the huge main with luxury ensuite and walk in robe. Another living or activity area is in the perfect position for kids to utilise near the bedrooms and providing external access. The double remote garage with internal access includes a bench with sink, the backyard is landscaped and includes a handy garden shed. This home presented like new, includes quality features, beautifully designed to make the most of the ocean views, sunshine throughout the day and it's wonderful location.

Hard to find a better family home, retirement spot or holiday destination with easy level living!
