NEST OR INVEST

It's time to bust out of the rent cycle and own your own home! This simple and honest property has "first home buyer" written all over it.

A solidly built home on brick piers with a weatherboard upper, double hung timber windows and a tiled roof. Overall this home is a basic but functional layout with a combined living/dining room with RC Aircon and 3 good sized bedrooms. The bathroom has been renovated to a modern standard but there's plenty of scope for you to put your creative stamp on the home with the original kitchen crying out for a makeover.

It is set on a gently sloping 644m² fully fenced block with a low maintenance backyard and a great detached 7.2 x 5.5m (approx) double garage with power at the rear.

Investors looking for a reliable rental property should also take an interest as it is currently occupied with an excellent tenant providing the possibility to hit the ground running with rental income.

Whether investing or looking for an opportunity to jump into your very own home, this property may just hit all the right notes. Make it yours!
